

Kamini Aisola, General Manager for Benelux at Amazon Web Services, has over fifteen years' experience in the technology sector, and leads the AWS team to support companies in Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg in their migration to the cloud. Kamini and the AWS team support both local and international companies of all sizes and help them understand how they can apply the benefits of cloud computing to stimulate their business, unleash innovation and better serve their own customers. Kamini holds a Master in Business Administration degree from IMD in Switzerland.